Personal Skills and Competence:

My work on cruise ships started in 1989 till the present time I work on the position as stewardess, but very often during my special duties I perform room service work, which is directly connected with bar and restaurant.

I am a team worker, able to deal with different people, easily making good relations with crew and guests. I am a dedicated and industrious person. I always try to learn something new and to share my experience with other crew-members. All these personal merits are confirmed by testimonials of my employers.
